Overview

California State Supplement

This California Supplement to the FY 2007 Transit Security Grant Program Supplemental Funding (TSGP-SF), Federal Program Guidelines and Application Kit is intended to complement, rather than replace, the guidelines published by the United States Department of Homeland Security (US-DHS). The supplement includes additional California policies and requirements applicable to FY 2007 TSGP Supplemental Funding.

Federal Program

The TSGP is one of five grant programs that constitute the Department of Homeland Security Fiscal Year 2007 Infrastructure Protection Program (IPP). The IPP is one tool among a comprehensive set of measures authorized by Congress and implemented by the Administration to help strengthen the nation's critical infrastructure against risks associated with potential terrorist attacks.

The vast bulk of America's critical infrastructure is owned and/or operated by State, local and private sector partners. The funds provided by the TSGP Supplemental Funding are primarily intended to support the work of public transit agencies that operate rail and bus networks. For the FY 07 TSGP supplemental awards only, law enforcement agencies that are principal providers of transit security to a Tier I system, and maintain dedicated transit units, may apply for funding under the five OPacks. The TSGP also supports security funding for the National Passenger Rail Corporation, Amtrak.

Supplemental Funding

Federal Program Guidelines and Application Kit

http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/odp/docs/FY07_TSGP_supplemental_guidance.pdf

The funding priorities for the FY07 TSGP Supplemental Funding reflect the Department's overall investment strategy, in which two priorities have been paramount: risk-based funding and regional security cooperation.

In addition to these two overarching priorities, the Department identifies the following seven specific priorities as our highest priority selection criteria for the FY07 TSGP Supplemental Funding rail and bus grants:

1. Protection of high risk/high consequence underwater and underground rail assets.
2. Protection of other high risk/high consequence assets and systems that have been identified through system-wide risk assessments.
3. Use of visible, unpredictable deterrence.
4. Targeted counter-terrorism training for key front-line staff.
5. Emergency preparedness drills and exercises.
6. Public awareness and preparedness campaigns.
7. Efforts in support of the national preparedness architecture.

Investment Justifications – As part of the application process, applicants must develop a formal Investment Justification that addresses each initiative being proposed for funding. These Investment Justifications must demonstrate how proposed projects address gaps and deficiencies in current programs and capabilities.

Applicants may propose up to ten (10) investments within their Investment Justification for individual systems and up to five (5) investments for regional projects (regional projects are those involving two or more eligible systems within the region). Tier 2 Investment Justifications must be submitted with the application by August 29, 2007. Tier 1 Investment Justifications for rail and intracity bus projects must be submitted to US-DHS by the appropriate SAA no later than 90 days from the date the grant is awarded by US-DHS.

State Program

The Governor has designated the Office of Homeland Security (OHS) as the State Administrative Agency (SAA) to apply for and administer the TSGP Supplemental Funding funds for California.

The FY 2007 TSGP Supplemental Funding provides financial assistance to eligible transit agencies through the SAA for protection of critical infrastructure and emergency preparedness activities. Allowable costs must comport with the FY 2007 Homeland Security Grant Program (HSGP), and the expenditure of FY 2007 TSGP Supplemental Funding must directly support each transit agency's risk-based Security and Emergency Preparedness Plan (SEPP) and a Regional Transit Security Strategy (RTSS). Funds are allocated on a regional basis and distribution must be based on a consensus among the eligible transit systems and the SAA.

1.) Security Narrative

- Point of Contact (POC)
- Operating System
 - o infrastructure
 - o ridership
 - o track miles
 - o Number of vehicles or vessels
 - o types of service
 - o other important features
 - o system maps
 - o geographic boundaries
 - transit system
 - cities and counties served
 - o other sources of funding being leveraged for security enhancements
- Current prevention, detection and response capabilities relative to:
 - o Improvised explosive devices (IED)
 - o Chemical, Biological, Radiological and Nuclear devices – sensors, canine units, etc.

2.) Transit Risk Assessment (TRA)

As outlined in “The Public Transportation System Security and Emergency Preparedness Planning Guide”, published by the US Department of Transportation, Federal Transit Administration (FTA).

US Department of Transportation
Federal Transit Administration (FTA)
<http://www.fta.dot.gov/>

For purposes of this grant, rail and intra-city bus systems may use the Security Readiness Assessment conducted by the Federal Transit Administration (FTA). These agencies may also use the risk assessments that were completed during the previous round of Urban Area Security Initiative (UASI) Transit Grants or the risk assessment completed as part of the ODP Mass Transit Technical Assistance Program.

Ferry Systems carrying more than 150 passengers on domestic voyages or more than 12 passengers on international voyages, and the terminals that serve them have already been required to conduct security assessments in accordance with the Maritime Transportation Security Act of 2002 (MTSA), and may use these to satisfy the requirements of this program.

3.) Security and Emergency Preparedness Plan (SEPP)

Each transit system must have a current (updated within the 12 months), comprehensive plan that includes the requirements outlined in the Public Transportation System Security and Emergency Preparedness Planning Guide, published by the FTA.

The SEPP should provide written policies and procedures to guide the transit system's activities for homeland security and emergency preparedness. The SEPP should also specifically identify how the transit agency intends to address any shortfalls in current measures to deal with improvised explosive devices (IED) and other prevention, detection and response capabilities identified as part of the risk assessment. The SEPP, along with the Regional Transit Security Strategy (RTSS) described below, must serve as the basis for proposed allocations of grant funding.

4.) Regional Transit Security Strategy (RTSS)

A key element of the FY 2007 TSGP is the requirement that transit agencies receiving funds through the program work with the states, urban areas and other transit systems in their defined region to develop an RTSS. As the owners and/or operators of infrastructure that is vital to the well being of the states and urban areas they serve, it is imperative that transit systems be incorporated into regional preparedness planning efforts. The RTSS should serve as the integration point between the individual, risk-based SEPPs, and the overall security goals and objectives of the region. Therefore, the RTSS must demonstrate a clear linkage to the applicable state and urban area homeland security strategies developed or currently being developed. It is expected that the SEPPs and the RTSS will serve as the basis on which funding is allocated to address regional transit security priorities, and the vehicle through which transit agencies may justify and access other funding and resources available on a region-wide basis through the UASI program.

5.) Regional Transit Security Working Group – Consensus on Allocation of Funding

The State Administrative Agency (SAA), following the direction of the Regional Transit Security Working Group (RTSWG), requires transit systems selected for funding to participate in the work group. Decisions reached by the RTSWG must be by consensus. Any changes or modifications to the award must be submitted by the authorized representative of the RTSWG.

Note: This RTSWG must come to consensus as to the allocation of funding available to the transit systems within their region.

Subgrantee Application Process

Subgrantee Applications

Pending US-DHS Award Announcements, successful applicants will be required to submit the subgrantee application workbook to include the following:

The SEPP must specifically identify how the transit agency intends to address any shortfalls in current measures to deal with improvised explosive devices (IED) and other prevention, detection and response capabilities. If SEPP has not been developed and implemented, funds will not be released.

Transit agencies selected for funding MUST participate in a Regional Transit Security Working Group (RTSWG). The RTSWG will develop the Regional Transit Security Strategy (RTSS).

4.) California Public Records Act

The details of any application, modification, report, and payment request will be subject to the provisions of the California Public Records Act (Governmental Code Section 6250 et seq.). This means that all, or part, of the information provided to the state may be publicly disclosed. While the state will make every effort to protect sensitive information, it is imperative that information provided to the state does not contain information that constituent jurisdictions or agencies believe are confidential. The applicant's and subgrantee's failure to protect such information from disclosure may jeopardize the safety and security of the people of the State of California. For example, do not specifically identify potential targets, locations, and their vulnerabilities if this information is not already public knowledge. While bridges and shopping malls are well known targets, key distribution points of petroleum products and data storage facilities are not. Applicants and subgrantees should prepare and submit information to the state with the expectation that it may be made publicly available. If there are any questions about the inclusion of sensitive information in any information provided to the state, contact the OHS, Public Information Officer.

5.) Post Award Modifications

Post award budget, scope and time modifications must be requested in writing by the subgrantee's Authorized Agent, and submitted to the OHS. The subgrantee may implement the modifications, and incur associated expenses, after receiving state written approval of the modification. One (1) modification per quarter may be submitted.

NOTE: Any changes or modifications to the award must be submitted to the RTSWG for approval. Decisions reached by the RTSWG must be by consensus. Failure to submit modification requests, and receive written approval from OHS prior to expenditure, could result in a reduction or disallowance of that part of the grant.

6.) Monitoring Subgrantee Performance

The State may perform periodic reviews of subgrantee performance of eligible activities and approved projects. These reviews may include, but are not limited to:

- Comparing actual subgrantee activities to those approved in the subgrant application and subsequent modifications, if any.
- Ensuring that advances have been disbursed in accordance with applicable guidelines.

- Confirming compliance with:
 - Grant Assurances.
 - Information provided on performance reports and payment requests.
 - Needs and threat assessments and strategies.
- Fiscal records and management.

7.) Suspension or Termination

Before taking action, the state will provide the subgrantee reasonable notice of intent to impose measures and will make efforts to resolve the problem informally. The state may suspend or terminate subgrant funding, in whole or in part, or other measures may be imposed for any of the following reasons:

- Failing to comply with the requirements or statutory objectives of federal or state law.
- Failing to make satisfactory progress toward the goals or objectives set forth in the subgrant application.
- Failing to follow grant agreement requirements or special conditions.
- Proposing or implementing substantial plan changes to the extent that, if originally submitted, the application would not have been selected for funding.
- Failing to submit required reports.
- Filing a false certification in the application or other report or document.

8.) Closeout

The State will close a subgrantee award after:

- Receiving a subgrantee Performance Report indicating that all approved work has been completed, and all funds have been disbursed;
- Completing a review to confirm the accuracy of reported information; and,
- Reconciling actual costs to awards, modifications and payments.
- If the closeout review and reconciliation indicates that the subgrantee:
 - o is owed additional funds, the state will send the final payment automatically to the subgrantee.
 - o did not use all funds received, the state will issue an Invoice to recover unused funds.

- In the Grant Closeout letter, the state will notify the subgrantee of the start of the record retention period for all programmatic and financial grant related records.

NOTE: Failure to maintain all grant records for the required retention period could result in a reduction of eligible grant activities, and an invoice to return costs associated with the unsupported activities.

9.) Management and Administrative Costs

The subgrantee management and administrative (M&A) allowance is a maximum of 2.5% of their sub-award for management and administration purposes.

10.) Advances and Interest Earned on Advances

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security allows subgrantees to request FY 2007 Transit Security Grant Program Supplemental Funding (TSGP-SF) funds up to 120 days prior to expenditure/disbursement, or on a reimbursement basis. The federal guide requires that advances be deposited in interest-bearing accounts, and describes how interest earned should be returned to the federal government.

In addition to returning interest in accordance with the prescribed federal guidance, subgrantees must also inform the Office of Emergency Services, Accounting Section, of any interest returned on program funds.

11.) Reimbursement Request Process

To request an advance or reimbursement payment of FY 07 TSGP-SF funds, complete and submit a Cash Request form from the Financial Management Forms Workbook and submit along with an Authorized Agent signature. Reimbursements will not be processed without an Authorized Agent signature.

NOTE: Payments can only be made if the subgrantee has an approved application, valid Governing Body Resolution and a valid Grant Assurance form on file with OHS.
